Gray Plant Mooty Adds Thomas A. Keller, III to Corporate & Business Practice Group

July 28, 2014

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (July 28, 2014) — The law firm of Gray Plant Mooty is pleased to announce another addition to its vast roster of corporate law experts with Thomas A. Keller, III joining the firm. As a principal, he brings more than 40 years of experience working with clients in a wide range of industries and varying in size from small businesses to multinational Fortune 500 corporations.

"Gray Plant Mooty has a long history of providing its corporate clients with practical advice and solutions, so Tom will fit in perfectly here," said Mike Sullivan, Jr., co-chair of Gray Plant Mooty's Corporate & Business group. "We are thrilled that our team members and clients will have an opportunity to benefit from his experiences and savviness."

Keller assists clients with mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, executive compensation, contracts, financing, license agreements, securities, and employment matters. His long-standing reputation and effective communication skills allow him to resolve even the most sophisticated disputes. He regularly serves as Special Master for the United States District Court in matters regarding complex corporate litigation and is heavily involved in community organizations around the Twin Cities and nationwide.

Gray Plant Mooty has a team of more than 50 business attorneys—many of whom themselves have previous experience as in-house counsel and board members—and are among the most experienced business lawyers in the Midwest.
