

The NLRB Comes to Campus: An Update on Union Activity at U.S. Institutions of Higher Education

March 19, 2014

Speaking Engagement

Presented by: Employment Law Alliance

The NLRB is posed to revisit many issues affecting U.S. colleges and universities in ways that will have lasting impact on union activity on campus. Thus, all institutions of higher education should be aware of recent and pending developments in order to stay abreast of these issues. Join us as a panel of experts from across the U.S. discusses recent union organizing efforts as well as the NLRB's recent activities on campus.

Gray Plant Mooty's Mark Mathison will be speaking at the panel.

To view and download the webinar materials, please visit the Employment Law Alliance website.