Join us for an economic outlook discussion with Joe Mahon, Regional Outreach Director for the Federal Reserve Bank of Minneapolis. Joe will review recent data on the national economy, with emphasis on the Fed's dual mandate of maximum employment and price stability (inflation) and the context for current monetary policy. He will also share hot-off-the-presses survey results on the near-term outlook. (NOTE that while Joe's position is with the Federal Reserve in Minneapolis, his analysis and input will be applicable to companies nationwide.)

Edward Tully, a partner in the Trusts, Estates & Legacy Planning group at Lathrop GPM, will introduce Joe and serve as emcee for the webinar.
