

Gray Plant Mooty Congratulates 2013 Minnesota Cup Winner Preceptis Medical, Inc.

September 12, 2013

Gray Plant Mooty congratulates the 2013 Minnesota Cup grand prize winner, Preceptis Medical, Inc., from the Life Science/Health IT division.

The judging panel consisted of executives, investors and professionals who are active in Minnesota's startup and entrepreneurial community, and included Gray Plant Mooty's Doug Ramler.

In addition, Gray Plant Mooty is a supporting sponsor of the High Tech Division, as their Entrepreneurial Services group has extensive experience in nurturing innovative ideas and serving the unique legal and business needs of entrepreneurs, start-ups, and growing businesses. Gray Plant Mooty is well-suited to serve companies like those participating in the Minnesota Cup, and takes pride in knowing their clients' ideas, objectives, and needs.

The Minnesota Cup is a statewide business plan competition that seeks out Minnesota's newest and most innovative business ideas. The 2013 Minnesota Cup received almost 1,100 entries from around the state. The competition encourages entrepreneurs, inventors, and creative minds to submit their breakthrough business ideas. Gray Plant Mooty is proud to sponsor the Minnesota Cup, which shares our commitment to supporting the efforts of emerging businesses.

To learn more and see a complete list of this year's finalists, visit the Minnesota Cup website.