

Bloomberg Law Quotes Ally Cunningham on State and Federal PFAS Soil Standards

November 10, 2021

Partner Ally Cunningham is quoted in the Bloomberg Law article "States Eclipse Feds in Cleaning Up 'Forever Chemicals' in Soil." In the article, Ally states, "So while states continue to develop their own varying thresholds and guidelines for cleanup, it is almost certain that federal regulations are looming, and potential liability is on the horizon." Ally further details the difficulty companies face in soil cleanup efforts as treatment technology is limited and standards are still being set at state and federal levels.
