

Three Gray Plant Mooty Lawyers Named Five Star Professionals in Estate Planning

November 11, 2014

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (November 10, 2014) — The law firm of Gray Plant Mooty is proud to announce that three lawyers, Sally Grossman, Sheryl Morrison, and Jessica Johnson, have received the 2015 Five Star Professional Estate Planning Attorney award.

Based on peer recommendations and consumer research, the Five Star Professional award is presented annually to individuals in recognition of quality client service and care. Winners are included in the Five Star Professional listing, a comprehensive guide to selecting experienced service professionals nation-wide.

A three-time Five Star Professional awardee, principal Sally Grossman has approximately 25 years' experience assisting high-net-worth individuals and their families in estate planning, business succession planning, estate and trust administration, and charitable planning. She also works with closely held business owners to develop succession plans to transition the business to younger generations, third-party buyers, or to employees.

For more than 25 years, principal Sheryl Morrison has focused her practice in the areas of estate and wealth planning, transfer tax strategies, business succession planning, estate and trust administration, creation and administration of charitable trusts and nonprofit organizations, and guardianships and conservatorships.

Jessica Johnson helps individuals, families, family businesses, and charitable organizations plan and prepare for the future. She advises individuals and entities through tax and fiduciary dispute resolution, assists clients through the gift and estate tax audit process, and has authored private letter ruling requests on clients' behalf.
