

Kurt Schaefer Receives Geyer Public Service Award

January 27, 2011

Senator Kurt Schaefer (Environmental - Jefferson City) recently was awarded the 2010 Geyer Public Service Award by the Mizzou Alumni Association for his support of higher education public policy. The award is presented annually to one state-elected official and one citizen who exemplify the dedication and spirit of Henry S. Geyer, a former state representative and proponent of education who introduced a bill to establish the University of Missouri in 1839. Read full story here.
