

Lathrop Gage Adds Tax and Benefits Attorney in Denver

February 26, 2019

Denver (Jan. 10, 2019) - Lathrop Gage's Denver office continues to expand its practice forte with the recent addition of Tax and Employee Benefits attorney Nicholas J. Anderson, Of Counsel.

Anderson previously practiced with Krieg DeVault LLP in Indiana, where he represented businesses with general corporate, federal tax and financing matters, and nonprofit organizations in obtaining and maintaining their tax-exempt status. He's also especially experienced handling all types of tax credit matters, particularly New Markets Tax Credits and Low-Income Housing Tax Credits. Prior to Krieg DeVault, Anderson was a Tax attorney with the Denver office of Kutak Rock LLP.

Anderson received his LL.M. in Taxation from the University of Denver, 2010. He received his Juris Doctor from Syracuse University College of Law, 2009, where he was a member of Syracuse Science & Technology Law Reporter. Anderson received his B.A. in Communication Studies from the University of Iowa, 2005.
