Wage and hour issues are one of the common denominators of employment law. This seminar will review some of the basic wage and hour rules.

08/23/2023 | less than a minute

Wage and hour issues are one of the common denominators of employment law; they apply to companies of all sizes and across all industries. Litigation of wage and hour claims, particularly in the class action format, has plagued employers for years and represents the biggest employment litigation risk facing most employers. This seminar will review some of the basic wage and hour rules, including:

- Employee v. Independent Contractor Classifications
- Exempt v. Non-Exempt Classification Issues
- Meal Period And Rest Break Rules and Practices
- Timekeeping Rules and Practices
- Overtime Payments
- Payment Of Final Wages
