KANSAS CITY (July 18, 2024) — Lathrop GPM LLP is pleased to share that the firm and its lawyers have been ranked in Chambers High Net Worth 2024, released today. Fourteen of the firm’s attorneys received regional honors in the 2024 directory, with the firm ranked in Colorado, Kansas, Minnesota and Missouri. Attorneys Brian Dillon, Joseph Growney, Tom Rodriguez and Justin Whitney are newly ranked in 2024.

“We are thrilled that the Chambers High Net Worth Guide recognizes our Trusts & Estates practice in every market where the firm has trust & estate attorneys, encompassing an impressive 14 ranked attorneys including four newly ranked and three others elevated from last year. Because our Trusts & Estates team truly practices together across multiple offices, we are proud to have the group recognized consistently in this way,” said Cameron Garrison, firm managing partner. “Commitment to client service is at the heart of everything we do, and this outstanding performance in Chambers’ private wealth rankings, and the role that client testimonials play in those rankings, is a testament to our client-first mentality. It also demonstrates our commitment to and dominance in advising clients on estate planning and estate litigation.”

Chambers High Net Worth 2024 recognized Lathrop GPM in Private Wealth Law in Colorado: Band 2, Kansas: Band 1, Minnesota: Band 1, and Missouri: Band 2. In Minnesota and Kansas, Lathrop GPM has more ranked attorneys than any other law firm.
