Contracting Out of Uncertainties

Watch our latest REal Brief conversation on strategies to manage risks arising from volatility in the post-COVID construction market.

05/25/2022 | less than a minute

Watch construction attorneys Richard McDonald and creditor rights and bankruptcy attorney Monique Jewett-Brewster as they discuss strategies to manage risks arising from volatility in the post-COVID construction market. Property owners, contractors and subcontractors will learn tips for negotiating contract protections to share and manage risks arising from unexpected supply chain disruptions and price increases, as well as red flags to watch for which indicate that a construction contract counterparty may be in financial distress.
