KANSAS CITY, Mo. (March 9, 2023) — Lathrop GPM LLP is pleased to share that the 2023 State of Litigation seminar will be held in person on Wednesday, April 12 from 11:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. The firm is excited to host this year's event at Arrowhead Stadium, home of the 2023 Superbowl Champions. As Kansas City gears up for even more national attention with the upcoming 2023 NFL Draft, and featuring a guest speaker from the NFL Players Association, this year's State of Litigation event is aptly titled: Football Draft Edition. Held annually, this complimentary event brings together business leaders, legal decision-makers, and industry experts to explore the latest trends in litigation and risk management.

"This event is something we look forward to hosting every year," said Lathrop GPM's Tort, Insurance & Environmental Practice Group Leader and event co-emcee Mara H. Cohara. "Since its inception over 15 years ago, the event has evolved as we have adapted to changes in the legal market and the economic and political climate. Our goal is to make this a premier event for business leaders and legal decision-makers in our geographical markets who want the latest insights into current and upcoming litigation trends."

"It's especially exciting for me to be involved in this year's seminar," added Pat Fanning, a Lathrop GPM litigation partner who will emcee the event alongside Cohara. "After starting my career at Lathrop GPM, I took a decade-long hiatus from the firm to pursue other opportunities, and I was honored to rejoin in November 2021. As someone who was born and raised in Kansas City, one thing that drew me back to the firm was its long history and deep roots to the local community. Coming off the outstanding Chiefs season and leading into the 2023 NFL draft, Arrowhead Stadium is the perfect venue to add to the incredible energy this event brings, and I look forward to sharing it with our clients."

The event will include a networking lunch, several general sessions, a DEI roundtable, a post-conference reception, and a keynote fireside chat-style interview with DeMaurice "De" Fitzgerald Smith, Executive Director of the National Football League Players Association. De will cover a variety of hot button topics affecting the National Football League Players Association today and what is on the horizon for the league. The general session topics include:
