DALLAS, TX (August 2, 2024) — The Dallas office of Lathrop GPM recently moved to a new location at 3131 McKinney Avenue. Located in the heart of the Uptown/Turtle Creek neighborhood, the new office features a hybrid layout with both open and private seating and workspaces, to enhance collaboration and support clients most effectively. Lathrop GPM opened its doors at the new space on July 15 and chose this space in part for its flexibility to accommodate future growth.

The move follows several significant partner-level hires who are headquartered in the new Dallas office space. Opened in 2019, Lathrop GPM's Dallas office is the home base for a team of 16 seasoned legal professionals and attorneys focused on all phases of complex litigation.

"We are excited to continue our hoteling-hybrid model to meet our evolving real estate needs. This flexible space empowers our attorneys and professionals to collaborate and serve our clients with maximum efficiency," said Chief Operating Officer Courtney Landon. "We are proud of our forward-looking approach and ability to adapt our spaces to meet client needs and market demands, confident that it will yield tremendous long-term benefits for our clients, our attorneys and all team members."

With direct access to the M-Line Trolley, McKinney Avenue and Uptown, the office boasts more than 100 walkable amenities, ensuring convenience for its team and clients. The new 4,009 square-foot space is Lathrop GPM's sixth transition to the hoteling-hybrid model, following recent office relocations in Boston, Chicago, Denver, Minneapolis and St. Louis. The firm has been evaluating and modifying its real estate footprint since 2022 to enhance connectivity and support a client-centric theme.
