SAN JOSE, Ca. (July 10, 2025) — For the second consecutive year, Lathrop GPM Partner Monique Jewett-Brewster was named to Lawdragon's 500 Leading Global Bankruptcy and Restructuring Lawyers for 2025. Jewett-Brewster is one of 500 attorneys from around the world who were selected based on journalistic research, submissions and vetting with experts.

Jewett-Brewster is the leader of the firm's Financial Services practice group and has more than 20 years of experience advising creditor clients in every aspect of insolvency law, including without limitation, in the workout, restructuring and enforcement of commercial loans and in business bankruptcy cases nationwide. Her clients include financial institutions, private money lenders, equipment leasing companies, asset purchasers, commercial landlords and tenants, receivers and trustees, credit unions and judgment creditors. She is a frequent presenter and author on the subjects of commercial finance and business bankruptcy.

In addition to this recognition, Jewett-Brewster is one of only 14 attorneys in North America to be inducted into the American College of Commercial Finance Lawyers (ACCFL)'s 2023 class of Fellows. She was recently named among the 2025 Northern California Super Lawyers magazine and was named one of Silicon Valley Business Journal's 2024 "100 Women of Influence" honorees.
