Performance Management, Discipline, & Termination (On-Demand)

Learn more about performance management, discipline, and termination

10/03/2023 | less than a minute

Managing the performance of employees is one of the most basic duties of every supervisor. Effective supervisors are able to establish performance standards, deliver feedback in a way that enhances the performance of each of their employees (not just those who are not meeting expectations) and, when necessary, implement terminations in a manner that does not create legal risk for the organization or damage its culture.

This video discusses practical tips on how to accomplish these basic but extremely important tasks.
