Many businesses are unaware of the insurance vulnerabilities they face and what they can do to minimize those ahead of a claim. Lathrop GPM is one of the largest firms in the U.S. dedicated to serving policyholders and helping them obtain the best possible coverage. Every member of our Insurance Recovery & Counseling team is equipped to conduct comprehensive, in-depth policy reviews and analysis. We often work with brokers to make sure our clients have the best policy language and coverage available. Our attorneys understand how certain policy provisions might be interpreted should a coverage dispute arise, and we help our clients obtain the best possible language available for their particular risks. Sometimes the nuances of a policy—even a single word or phrase—can make the difference between millions of dollars in coverage and no coverage. When it comes to insurance, details are critical, and we are adept at scrutinizing the details.

Our Insurance Recovery & Counseling attorneys are open to conducting policy reviews for a flat-fee. Since not all policies are the same, we are happy to discuss the policies at issue and the goals you seek to accomplish before quoting a flat-fee offer.
