

VIDEOS & PODCASTS

REal Brief

Terminating Tenancy and Unlawful Detainer After COVID

This on-demand webinar discusses changes to the procedural requirements that landlords must follow to terminate a tenants tenancy based on a failure to pay rent, as well as ways landlords can avoid the limitations on rent increases during a state of emergency.

05/04/2022 | less than a minute

Litigation attorney Lucas Coe and Real Estate attorney Andrew Ditlevsen discuss changes to the procedural requirements that landlords must follow to terminate a tenants tenancy based on a failure to pay rent, as well as ways landlords can avoid the limitations on rent increases during a state of emergency.

Related People

Lucas Coe

Associate

San Jose

408.299.1348

lucas.coe@lathrooggpm.com

Andrew Ditlevsen

Partner

Sacramento

408.286.9800

andrew.ditlevsen@lathrooggpm.com

---

Related Services

[Real Estate &
Development](#)