

Lathrop GPM's Dallas office – located in the heart of the Uptown/Turtle Creek neighborhood Loop – features a 4,009 square-foot hybrid layout with open and private seating and workspaces, to enhance collaboration and support clients most effectively. Lathrop GPM opened its doors at the new space in 2024 and chose this space in part for its flexibility to accommodate future growth. With direct access to the M-Line Trolley, McKinney Avenue and Uptown, the office boasts more than 100 walkable amenities, ensuring convenience for its team and clients. Attorneys in our Dallas office are dedicated to high-tech intellectual property and serve an array of innovative clients, from Fortune 100 corporations to individual inventors. Lathrop GPM's Dallas IP team collaborates with clients to build strong patent portfolios that protect the commercialization of technologies across aerospace, consumer electronics, medical devices, peripheral and embedded devices, software, fintech, artificial intelligence and machine learning, and more. The office is actively growing its franchise and distribution, toxic tort and business litigation capabilities as well.
