

Quentin Wittrock Recognized as 2015 BTI Client Service All-Star

February 11, 2015

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (February 11, 2015) — The law firm of Gray Plant Mooty is pleased to share that Quentin Wittrock has been named to the BTI Client Service All-Stars 2015.

Minneapolis-based Wittrock was nominated by a leading industrial manufacturer in Antitrust & Trade Regulation Law. Principal and chair of the GPM Foundation Committee, Wittrock has represented businesses in preventing or resolving disputes involving antitrust, franchising, and distribution, as well as many other types of business disputes, for over 25 years. He has coordinated and tried franchise, distribution, antitrust, noncompete, and employment cases throughout the United States, and has been recognized as a "Legal Eagle" by the Franchise Times and in The International Who's Who of Franchise Lawyers. He received his J.D. from the University of Iowa.

The BTI Client Service All-Stars, an elite group of standout lawyers, are identified solely through unprompted client feedback, and these lawyers are recognized as delivering the absolute best client service. The six key factors that drive this exceptional client service are client focus, being an innovative thought leader, having exceptional understanding of the client's business, legal skills, outsized value, and outstanding results.
