

Franchise Webcast: FDA Menu Regulations - The Countdown to May

March 21, 2017

Last week, Gray Plant Mooty attorneys Danell Olson Caron and Julia Dayton Klein presented a webcast on the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA)'s new rules setting a nationwide standard for menu labeling. Joined by FDA Consumer Safety Officer Loretta Carey, they discussed enforcement of the new rules and the expected impact on franchisors and other businesses.

Click here to view the presentation slides

View on YouTube

Issues discussed in the webcast included:

- An overview of the FDA menu labeling regulations, including what led to their enactment, the key dates for compliance, and substantive points to know
- Best practices for compliance, including implications for the franchise industry
- Plans for enforcement

Previous GPM franchise webcasts:

- "NASAA's FPR Commentary: What Franchisors Need to Know Now," recorded February 16, 2017

- "Key Considerations for the 2017 Franchise Registration Renewal Season," recorded January 25, 2017