

Real Estate Alert: Vapor Intrusion Fact Sheet

2019

Real estate developers, building owners, lenders, and potential purchasers have much to consider before and during property acquisition and redevelopment projects. Among the topics are emerging environmental issues, such as vapor intrusion.

To learn more about vapor intrusion, including what it is, the associated liability concerns, ways to address them, and how it can affect a property or a transaction, see this recently created fact sheet.

Questions may be directed to Gray Plant Mooty attorney Rick Kubler who contributed to this recent "Vapor Intrusion: What Minnesota Commercial/Industrial Building Owners, Prospective Purchasers, Developers, and Their Lenders Should Know" fact sheet.
