Laura M. Robichaud

Supervisor - Foreign Filing | laura.robichaud@lathropgpm.com

Laura Robichaud is an Intellectual Property paralegal in the firm's Boston office. She supports our IP patent attorneys and technical specialists in areas including:

- Finalizing and filing international applications in accordance with PCT requirements, utilizing the appropriate online platform (ePCT and/or EFS-Web)
- Overseeing filing formalities required in foreign jurisdictions for all newly filed National/Regional Phase and direct conversion applications
- Communicating with foreign associates and clients regarding developments that arise throughout the duration of patent application prosecution

Prior to beginning her career in legal support, Laura worked as an ESL teacher in Boston and Spain.
