Abram B. White

Associate | abram.white@lathropgpm.com

Abram White is an associate in the firm's Financial Services practice group. Abram has experience performing extensive legal research, reviewing case files, drafting legal memoranda and opinions, and has helped to resolve motions in over 120 civil and criminal cases. He works with brokerage firms, debtors, trustees, corporate creditors and banks. His practice includes drafting motions, mediation statements, and demand letters analyzing breach of contract, conversion, replevin, statutes of limitations, foreign judgment enforcement and preference defenses.

Prior to joining the firm, he served as legislative correspondent to a United States Senator, writing correspondence and memorandum, preparing for hearings, and determining legislative priorities and agenda. Abram was also law clerk to the Honorable Judge Brian Wimes of the United States District Court for the Western District of Missouri where he worked to help resolve motions on over 120 civil and criminal cases. Prior to clerking, Abram was an intern to the Honorable Judge Thomas Hardiman of the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit.
