Julian A. Sansano

Associate | julian.sansano@lathrooggpm.com

Julian Sansano practices in the firm's Corporate & Business Transactions group, focusing on mergers and acquisition, corporate governance, startup and emerging growth companies, and general corporate and business law. Julian counsels businesses on legal issues encountered throughout its entire lifecycle, including entity formation, equity and debt financing, corporate governance, contract negotiations, and, finally, mergers and acquisitions. He offers unique end-to-end solutions to companies of all sizes in order for them to meet company objectives and strategically position itself within its respective industry.

Prior to joining the firm, Julian was an associate at another Kansas City based law firm where he began his journey as a business transactions attorney.

Prior to practicing law, Julian played soccer for North Carolina FC.
