Adunni Gueye

Associate | adunni.gueye@lathropgpm.com

Adunni focuses her practice on business litigation and dispute resolution, supporting clients in a variety of areas including complex commercial disputes, data privacy and § 1983 civil rights claims. She also assists clients across a wide range of media law issues.

She joins the firm after spending two summers as a Lathrop GPM summer associate where she gained valuable experience assisting in matters relating to white-collar investigations and defenses, contract disputes and labor and employment law.

In law school, Adunni was nominated for the Jan Jancin Award for her work with Dennis Crouch. She also gained experience as a student law clerk for the Honorable Roseann A. Ketchmark of the Western District of Missouri, where she researched and drafted opinions relating to all aspects of civil and criminal litigation.

Outside of her legal practice, Adunni enjoys playing competitive tennis and traveling.
