Brittany A. Justice

Paralegal | brittany.justice@lathrooggpm.com

Brittany Justice is a litigation paralegal with over 10 years of experience supporting attorneys on a myriad of litigation matters, including employment and labor, business litigation, corporate law, trusts, estates & legacy planning matters, insurance defense, medical malpractice, product liability, and class actions. She works primarily with attorneys in Lathrop GPM's Litigation & Dispute Resolution and Employment & Labor practice groups. She is particularly skilled at managing complex, document-intensive matters, including multiparty lawsuits and class actions.

Brittany is proficient at analyzing and summarizing discovery requests, responses and third-party documents, coordinating materials for expert witnesses, overseeing and maintaining case files for large-scale litigation, preparing outlines and compiling documents in advance of depositions, hearings and trial, and assisting with the preparation of pleadings, motions and other court filings. Additionally, she has vast experience preparing and organizing service of subpoenas in local and foreign jurisdictions. Brittany is skilled in conducting background investigations and locating and interviewing fact and expert witnesses. She also acquires medical, employment and education documentation, analyzes records, and prepares chronologies. Brittany assists in all phases of discovery, including identifying and compiling relevant documents, drafting and editing discovery, and conducting document review for productions.

Brittany is responsible for maintaining litigation databases and managing paper and electronic case materials throughout all phases of litigation. She is experienced in designing, coordinating and managing web-based document repositories to manage complex document reviews and productions, and is proficient in various litigation platforms.

Brittany has assisted in multiple trials, preparing trial exhibits, witness outlines and demonstratives, and assisting with electronic evidence preparation. She is experienced in jury selection and has conducted due diligence research on jury pools for trial teams.

Through her most recent work as a contract paralegal, Brittany understands just what it takes to make a business run. She is passionate about helping clients achieve their goals both inside and outside of trial.
