Alexandra A. Roje

Partner | alex.roje@lathropgpm.com

Alex Roje is a Partner in the firm's Insurance Recovery practice. Alex is highly skilled in complex insurance and commercial litigation matters, representing policyholder clients in a wide range of insurance coverage disputes involving directors' and officers' liability, product and environmental liability, employment practice liability, first-party property coverage, crime/fidelity coverage, and insurance coverage matters in bankruptcy proceedings. In addition to prosecuting insurance coverage cases, Alex assists policyholders with the design of insurance coverage strategies, manuscripting insurance policies, and provides advice and counseling to corporate boards on insurance coverage and liability issues in the context of mergers and acquisitions, and transactional risk insurance including "reps and warranties" liability and tax indemnity insurance products.

Alex's extensive trial experience includes insurance recovery and commercial litigation matters. Her achievements include arbitrations for the Los Angeles Dodgers, a multi-year trial and appellate proceedings before the International Criminal Tribunal for Former Yugoslavia in The Hague, as well as two separate verdicts on behalf of a national healthcare system and hospital against a health maintenance organization.

In addition, Alex is a frequent speaker for panels and webinars on the topic of insurance coverage, co-authored the Rutter Group's D&O Liability Insurance Section, and has served as the Co-chair of the American Bar Association's Director and Officer Liability Insurance Section and is a member of its advisory group as well. In the 2022 Chambers & Partners California Insurance: Policyholder category individual rankings, the following has been said about Alex's sought after work: "She cuts to the critical points and knows this space well." "Alexandra is excellent and provides outstanding advice."
