Catherine P. Logan

Senior Counsel | catherine.logan@lathropgpm.com

Catherine Logan has concentrated her practice in the areas of public law, public finance, development and incentives, land use and zoning and real estate.

In the area of public law, Catherine provides City Attorney services for Kansas cities, and has advised numerous public entities in Kansas and Missouri as special counsel on various issues, including zoning and land use, real estate, and procurement and contract issues. She routinely assists both public and private clients in connection with economic development incentives and financings, including tax increment financing, neighborhood improvement district financing, special benefit districts, lease purchase financing, tax abatements, revenue bonds, general obligation bonds, letters of credit and other credit enhancements.

She also represents borrowers, including non-profit entities, in connection with both taxable and tax exempt bond financings and continuing disclosure matters.

In the area of real estate, Catherine has represented clients in a broad range of real estate transactions including purchase and sale transactions, leases and financings.
