March 26, 2014

Firm Event & Webinar

Presented by: Carl Crosby Lehmann and Kathryn Nash

It's been nearly a year from the passage of the Campus SaVE Act, which goes into effect on March 7, 2014. As we continue to await the promised regulations, there are still many things that your institution can and should be doing. During this breakfast briefing we'll help you prioritize what steps your institution should be taking to bring it into compliance. You'll also have an opportunity to learn from colleagues about practical ways that they're approaching putting these requirements into practice.
