

Legal Guide to Privacy and Data Security: A Seminar Presented by Minnesota CLE

August 18, 2014

Speaking Engagement

Minnesota CLE Conference Center

600 Nicollet Mall #370

3rd Floor City Center

Minneapolis, MN 55402

Join Gray Plant Mooty lawyers Michael Cohen, Hailey Hollenhorst, Brian Dillon, and your colleagues for this fast-paced seminar that will cover a variety of helpful topics whether you're a lawyer new to privacy and data security or an experienced lawyer looking for a refresher.

To see what else is going on throughout the day, click here to view a full agenda for the seminar.

For an introduction to data privacy and to view the available Legal Guides (including A Legal Guide To Privacy and Data Security), view our Data Privacy page here.

Setting the State - Foundational Principles and Today's Landscape

Introduction to Privacy Law

with Michael Cohen

9:00 - 9:30 a.m.

This foundational session sets the stage for the rest of the day by identifying the myriad sources of data privacy law and enforcement authorities, as well as providing an overview of the legal landscape.

Fast-Paced Survey of Selected Key Laws

The Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act - Protections for Consumer Financial Information

with Hailey Hollenhorst

10:15 - 10:30 a.m.

The Federal Trade Commission Act & Privacy Protections

with Brian Dillon

10:30 - 10:45 a.m.