Minnesota's "Sexual Harassment and Violence Policy" law adds to the myriad of regulations Minnesota colleges and universities must follow in addressing sexual assaults on their campuses. Institutions are required to provide state specific training to extend their training to investigators, adjudicators, confidential resources, first responders, and campus security personnel. Minnesota based trainED offers trainings to help you satisfy these training requirements before the law takes effect August 1.

Join us for a special training designed to help satisfy your institutions new training requirements under Minnesota law for confidential resources, first responders, and campus security personnel. We've created special group pricing for the afternoon session, so you can get these key employees trained - on time and without costing you a fortune.
