Is your institution in compliance with Title IX and the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act (VAWA)? Are you new to Title IX and unfamiliar with what your roles and responsibilities are? Get up to speed with trainED's one-day Title IX Coordinator Training for New Coordinators and Deputy Coordinators.

Higher education institutions are legally required to provide specialized training on an annual basis on sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, stalking, and related topics to employees with heightened responsibilities in these areas, such as Title IX coordinators and deputies, investigators, adjudicators, student services and human resources professionals, administrators, and campus security personnel.

Join us for a day of in-depth training to satisfy these requirements. Participants will leave the training with an up-to-date understanding of current compliance requirements and their heightened responsibilities and obligations.
