You're invited to join us for Gray Plant Mooty's Employment and Labor Law Seminar on Monday, May 1, 2017. This full-day seminar will address recent developments and hot topics in employment, labor, and employee benefits law, including updates based on activities in these areas by the new Trump administration.

The seminar will feature both plenary presentations and breakout sessions on a variety of topics, including:

- Employment, employee benefits, and labor law updates
- The interplay between leadership and employee retention
- New sick pay laws
- Wage and hour compliance
- Drug testing
- Employment agreements, including confidentiality and noncompete agreements

- Leaves and accommodations

- LGBTQ rights in the workplace
