

2019 Employment and Labor Law Seminar

April 9, 2019

Firm Event

You're invited to attend Gray Plant Mooty's annual Employment and Labor Law Seminar on Tuesday, April 9, 2019. This full-day seminar will address current issues and recent developments in employment and labor law, with presentations and breakout sessions on a variety of topics, including:

- Employment, employee benefits, and labor law annual updates
- Emerging workplace issues (emotional support animals, biometrics, telecommuting, and more)
- Sexual harassment: #MeToo era updates and lessons learned
- The ADA/FMLA/workers' compensation triangle, focusing on mental health and addiction
- What to do when the government comes knocking
- Trade secrets and employment agreements
- I-9 compliance and audits
- How to avoid being sued by your employees
- Wage and hour update

- Performance issues and discipline management

This year our seminar will feature a guest speaker presentation from Sarah Sladek, founder and CEO of XYZ University, a local organization that educates employers on bridging generational gaps as part of recruitment and retention efforts in this tight labor market.
