Join Lathrop GPM IP attorneys for an update on the current state of IP in a social-distanced world. Erica Van Loon, Amy Brozenic, Eric Sidler, and Molly Littman will discuss the Supreme Court's recent Romag Fasteners decision and the historic Supreme Court telephonic oral arguments in USPTO v. Booking.com. We will also provide an update on how COVID-19 has affected copyright, patent, and trademark matters in the courts, at the USPTO and Copyright Office, and internationally. Finally, we will explore out-of-court measures you can take to protect your IP from bad actors and how you can manage your IP portfolio now. Bring your questions and your war stories to this interactive webinar.
