

The Journal of the Kansas Bar Association Features Artificial Intelligence Article by Robert Lambrechts

January 2020

The Journal of the Kansas Bar Association published an article by Bob Lambrechts (OP) in its January edition entitled "May It Please the Algorithm: The Future of A.I. in the Practice of Law." The article addresses how technology is changing the practice of law, specifically, the current and future of artificial intelligence within the legal system.