

Happi Magazine Features Article Co-Authored by Ally Cunningham

April 29, 2021

Lathrop GPM Partner Ally Cunningham co-authored "Cosmetics Manufacturers Should Watch Out for PFAS Developments," featured in Happi Magazine. In the article, they review the increased focus on PFAS by regulators and offer guidance to cosmetics manufacturers for avoiding potential litigation. "...regulations around PFAS are increasing, and their designation as a hazardous substance seems increasingly likely. At this stage, the time to prepare is probably too valuable to pass up."
