

Missouri Times Profiles Kurt Schaefer

June 11, 2021

Kurt Schaefer is profiled in the Missouri Times article "From Legislating To Lobbying, a Look at Kurt Schaefer's Progression Through Government." In the article, Kurt discusses the progression of his career, as a former assistant attorney general, deputy director of the Department of Natural Resources, and Appropriations chair in the Senate, leading him to his current roles as Partner at Lathrop GPM and Lathrop GPM Consulting. Kurt said of his work as a lobbyist, "What I enjoy now is I get to step back and look at bigger picture issues and try to help clients on a much broader view than just the day-to-day."
