Law360 Pulse

Law360 Pulse recently featured the arrival announcement of Lathrop GPM Trusts, Estates & Legacy Planning attorneys Peter LeBlanc, Jr. and Kevin Mason in Missouri. LeBlanc joins the firm in the St. Louis office as counsel, while Mason joins the firm as an associate in Kansas City.

Marya Robben, partner and leader of the firm's Trusts, Estates & Legacy Planning practice group, said in a statement Wednesday that the duo's experience and capabilities "strengthen our team's ability to continue serving our clients for many years to come."

"Both lawyers will strengthen our dynamic, multidisciplinary practice, bringing more depth to our Kansas City and St. Louis teams," Robben said in a statement.
