

Gray Plant Mooty Names Inchan Hwang as ‘Leadership Council on Legal Diversity’ Fellow

March 27, 2013

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (March 27, 2013) — Gray Plant Mooty, as a member of the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD), has chosen Inchan Hwang to be a member of the 2013 class of Fellows. He will participate in a landmark program created by LCLD to identify, train, and advance the next generation of leaders in the legal profession.

Inchan joins a select group of experienced attorneys from diverse backgrounds who have been recognized for their potential as leaders in their organizations.

According to LCLD Executive Director Robert J. Grey, Jr., the LCLD Fellows Program offers participants "an extraordinarily rich year of relationship-building, virtual and in-person training, peer-group projects, and extensive contact with LCLD's top leadership."

Founded in 2009, the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity is a growing organization of more than 200 corporate chief legal officers and law firm managing partners dedicated to creating a truly diverse legal profession. Its goal is to help its member organizations find, hire, retain, promote, and engage the best talent.

Inchan, who is fluent in both the Korean and Japanese languages, practices in a wide range of U.S. and international business law matters, with an emphasis on corporate finance and capital markets transactions, corporate governance and securities law compliance, and mergers and acquisitions. He regularly represents public companies with corporate governance and securities law compliance matters.
