

Nick Nierengarten Elected to American College of Coverage and Extracontractual Counsel

June 25, 2014

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (June 25, 2014) — Gray Plant Mooty is pleased to announce that principal Nick Nierengarten was recently elected a Fellow at the American College of Coverage and Extracontractual Counsel (ACCEC).

The ACCEC is composed of preeminent attorneys representing the interests of both insurers and policyholders, with the goal of improving quality and civility in the practice of insurance law. ACCEC educates all sectors involved in insurance disputes—including the judiciary, legal, and insurance professionals and businesses—on critical topics such as best practices in policy formation and claims handling, developing trends in insurance law, and bad faith.

Nierengarten's practice comprises nearly 30 years of insurance law experience, covering the full spectrum of insurance coverage issues. He helps clients manage risk and resolve disputes and, when needed, represents policyholders in coverage litigation. His savvy at policy analysis is highly regarded across a wide range of coverage types including commercial general liability, directors and officers, employment practices liability, fiduciary liability, and many more.

About Gray Plant Mooty:

Gray Plant Mooty is recognized as one of the leading corporate law firms in Minnesota and one of the top franchise firms in the world. Our roots go back to 1866. Today, we are a 170-attorney, full-service firm with offices in Minneapolis and St. Cloud, Minnesota, and Washington, DC. Our attorneys and staff provide exceptional client service and value to our clients, and directly or with our global affiliations, we provide comprehensive legal services on a regional, national, and global basis.