

Jane Marrone Joins Gray Plant Mooty Real Estate Group

February 6, 2015

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (February 6, 2015) — The law firm of Gray Plant Mooty is pleased to announce an exciting addition to its Real Estate Practice Group, with Jane Marrone joining the firm as a principal.

With clients including mid-size to national Fortune 500 companies and financial institutions, Marrone represents property owners and tenants in a variety of real estate matters such as purchases and sales, development, construction, and commercial leasing. She also represents lenders and borrowers in commercial lending transactions with a concentration on real estate financing. Her business and financial services knowledge, combined with extensive legal real estate experience, make her an asset to any transaction.

Marrone joins a real estate team with decades of Minnesota real estate law experience and a roster of Minnesota State Bar Association Board-Certified Real Property Specialists—a group continuously recognized as a go-to resource for real estate needs of businesses of all sizes in Minnesota and surrounding regions.

Marrone received her J.D. from William Mitchell College of Law and her undergraduate degree from San Diego State University.
