

Amy M. Brozenic Joins Lathrop Gage as an Associate

March 17, 2008

Kansas City, Mo. (March 17, 2008) – Joel Voran, CEO of Lathrop Gage L.C., announced today that Amy M. Brozenic has joined the Overland Park, Ks. office as an associate in intellectual property .

Brozenic has been practicing at the United States Patent & Trademark Office examining trademark applications to ensure compliance with the Lanham Act and USPTO procedural requirements.

Brozenic received her undergraduate degree from the University of Kansas in 2002 and her juris doctorate from the University of Missouri – Kansas City School of Law in 2005. She was the Lead Literary Editor in 2004-2005 of the UMKC Law Review. Brozenic received the Willard L. Pollard UMKC Law Review Award in 2005, and also won the Federal Estate Planning Symposium Prize in 2005. She is a member of the Phi Beta Kappa Society.

About Lathrop Gage:

A leading Midwest full-service law firm, Lathrop Gage L.C. has 280 attorneys in 10 offices nationwide – from Denver, Colo. to New York, New York. In 2007, Chambers USA ranked Lathrop Gage's corporate, environmental, intellectual property, litigation, real estate and labor and employment teams among the best in the Midwest. For more information, visit www.lathropgage.com.