

Julia Dayton Klein Joins GPM's Litigation Practice Group

February 22, 2016

MINNEAPOLIS (February 22, 2016) — Gray Plant Mooty is pleased to announce that Julia Dayton Klein has joined its team of experienced and talented attorneys in its Minneapolis office. Klein will be a principal in the Litigation group.

Prior to joining Gray Plant Mooty, Klein served as general counsel with the Minnesota Department of Commerce, where she led the Division of Legal Services. Before that, she was an associate with Robins, Kaplan, Miller & Ciresi L.L.P. and Moss & Barnett, P.A.

Business litigation, intellectual property, and regulatory matters comprise the primary focus of Klein's career. She earned her J.D. and B.B.A. from the University of Notre Dame.
