

Sarah Duniway Recognized in Minneapolis/St. Paul Business Journal's 2016 Women in Business

April 15, 2016

MINNEAPOLIS (April 15, 2016) - The law firm of Gray Plant Mooty is pleased to announce that Managing Officer Sarah Duniway has been recognized by Minneapolis/St. Paul Business Journal as one of the publication's 2016 Women in Business honorees.

This year's awards recognize 51 women from throughout the Twin Cities, honoring their professional achievements and leadership, as well as their service to the Twin Cities community. Honorees will be recognized at an awards luncheon on Thursday, May 26, at The Depot in Minneapolis.

Sarah Duniway partners with the firm's other managing officer, Charlie Maier, to lead 180 lawyers across 11 practice groups. Sarah is among only a handful of women in top leadership positions at Top 350 law firms, and she has focused much of her leadership on promoting a diverse workforce and advancing women attorneys. In addition to her role as managing officer, Sarah also runs a successful practice in the areas of nonprofit and health law, regularly advising nonprofit organizations, social enterprises, and health care providers on matters including tax-exemption, governance, campaign finance, regulatory compliance, and business operations issues.

About Gray Plant Mooty

Gray Plant Mooty is recognized as one of the leading corporate law firms in Minnesota and one of the top franchise firms in the world. Our roots go back to 1866. Today, we are a 180-attorney, full-service firm with offices in Minneapolis and St. Cloud, Minn., Fargo, N.D., and Washington, D.C. Our attorneys and staff provide exceptional client service and value to our clients, and directly or with our global affiliations, we provide comprehensive legal services on a regional, national and global basis. Learn more at www.gpmlaw.com and www.gpmlaw150.com.