

Gray Plant Mooty Recognized as Top Workplace by Minneapolis Star Tribune

June 27, 2016

MINNEAPOLIS (June 27, 2016) - The law firm of Gray Plant Mooty is pleased to announce that it has been listed as a 2016 Top 150 Workplace in the pages of the Minneapolis Star Tribune. Gray Plant Mooty is listed 32nd among mid-sized employers, based on surveys of employee satisfaction and engagement. It is the only major Twin Cities law firm to receive this distinction.

More than 75 percent of Gray Plant Mooty employees participated in the firmwide Top Workplaces survey, with 69 percent reporting a positive sense of engagement with their work. In most areas surveyed, the firm outperformed its peers in the legal industry nationwide. More information about this year's rankings can be found at the Star Tribune's website.

Feedback from GPM employees, reported in the Star Tribune's profile, noted:

- "All employees are valued and treated with respect."
- "I am challenged every day."
- "GPM makes you feel comfortable and very appreciated."

Gray Plant Mooty thanks all of its employees for their participation in the Top Workplaces survey, as well as their ongoing commitment to creating a positive and rewarding work environment. Click here for more information about working at Gray Plant Mooty.
