

Gray Plant Mooty Attorney Leah Leyendecker Earns Privacy Professional Certification

October 12, 2017

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (Oct. 12, 2017) - The law firm of Gray Plant Mooty announced today that Associate Leah Leyendecker has earned the Certified Information Privacy Professional/United States (CIPP/US) private-sector certification through the International Association of Privacy Professionals (IAPP).

Leyendecker joins fellow Gray Plant Mooty attorneys Michael Cohen and Aaron Crandall in the select group of attorneys holding this certification, a credential that recognizes expertise in the area of United States privacy and data protection laws in the private sector.

Leyendecker's practice centers on intellectual property matters, such as trademark and copyright law, data privacy, technology licensing, and commercial agreements.

CIPP is the world's first broad-based global privacy and data protection credentialing program, which the IAPP developed and launched with leading subject matter experts.

About Gray Plant Mooty

Gray Plant Mooty is recognized as one of the leading corporate law firms in Minnesota and one of the top franchise firms in the world. Our roots date back to 1866. Today, we are a 185-attorney, full-service firm with offices in Minneapolis and St. Cloud, Minn., Washington, D.C., and Fargo, N.D. Our attorneys and staff provide exceptional client service and value, and comprehensive legal services on a regional, national, and global basis. Learn more at www.gpmlaw.com.