

Emily Kiser Joins Lathrop Gage as an Associate

March 26, 2012

ST. LOUIS (March 26, 2012) – Emily Kiser has joined Lathrop Gage LLP as an associate the firm has announced. She will concentrate her practice in business litigation and will be located in the firm's St. Louis office.

Kiser has experience in bankruptcy, commercial litigation and real estate litigation, including loan enforcement, bankruptcy and creditor's rights, real estate and title disputes and mechanic's liens. She frequently represents financial institutions in breach of contract and asset protection matters. She also has experience advising lenders, contractors and home owners handling property related matters and prosecuting quiet title and reformation actions.

Kiser received her bachelor of arts in political science and her bachelor of science in public relations from the University of Florida. She received her juris doctorate from Saint Louis University School of Law.

About Lathrop Gage LLP:

A full-service law firm, Lathrop Gage LLP has more than 320 attorneys in 11 offices nationwide – from Los Angeles to New York. In 2011, Chambers USA ranked Lathrop Gage's corporate, environmental, intellectual property, labor and employment, litigation, real estate and transportation teams among the best in their regions. For more information, visit www.lathropgage.com.