

Gray Plant Mooty Counsels on Bite Squad Merger

January 23, 2019

MINNEAPOLIS (January 23, 2019) - Gray Plant Mooty is pleased to announce the successful merger of its client, BiteSquad, with Waitr Holdings, Inc., a fast-growing restaurant platform for online ordering and on-demand food delivery. The transaction was valued at approximately $325 million.

Members of the Gray Plant Mooty Corporate and Business Practice Group worked to ensure a smooth transaction in this complex deal. The core BiteSquad team from Gray Plant Mooty included attorneys Daniel Tenenbaum, David Morehouse, Alyssa Hirschfeld, and Richard Bennett, along with Paralegal Getey Richott. In total, over 25 professionals from the law firm collaborated in this work.

BiteSquad's Chief Legal and Administrative Officer Damon Schramm said: "Gray Plant Mooty's legal expertise was essential in realizing this successful transaction. We greatly appreciate the team's assistance, creativity, and tireless work over the last several months."
