

Gray Plant Mooty Named to Honor Roll of BTI Consulting Group's Litigation Outlook 2020

October 21, 2019

MINNEAPOLIS (Oct. 21, 2019) — Gray Plant Mooty has been named to the Honor Roll of BTI Consulting Group's 10th annual Litigation Outlook for 2020. The report is based entirely on client feedback from more than 300 legal decision-makers at leading organizations worldwide. The surveyed clients identified firms that display a deep understanding of their changing demands and expectations.

Gray Plant Mooty was named in the top three as "A Powerhouse in Complex Commercial Litigation." GPM is among a total of 190 firms recognized for litigation strength.

"We at Gray Plant Mooty are honored to again be recognized by our clients for excellence in service," said Managing Officer Michael Sullivan, Jr.

BTI has previously recognized Gray Plant Mooty and its attorneys in many of its legal rankings and guides. The firm was named to the 2019 BTI "Client Service A-Team" list for the ninth consecutive year. BTI also named Gray Plant Mooty a "Brand Elite" law firm for 2019, recognizing excellence in the core areas of Client Experience, Premium Worth, and Innovation, as well as nine key branding measures.
